Royal Example.

ONE relates the following Tranſaction in the Phyſick Garden at Chelſea. He had not been long there, when the firſt in Rank of the Fair Sex came to walk in the Garden: He withdrew into a private Walk, and left his venerable Guide, the old Gardiner, (his Son being abroad,) to receive his Royal Viſitant in the Province he was plac'd in. She did not ſtay long; and when I came to him, (ſays he,) he of his own Accord related to me what had paſs'd. He told me, his Royal Viſitant had enquired into his Age: He inform'd her he was within a few Days of 90. And yet I fancy reply'd the Lady, you could be very willing to live 90 Years longer! Not 19 Days, Madam, anſwer'd the old Gardiner, if it were in my own Choice. And art thou willing and fit to die, ſaid the Lady? More willing, Madam, and much fitter than to live, anſwer'd he. Upon which Words, the gracious Viſitant took him by the Hand, declaring him a happy Man, and one that ſhe could almoſt afford to envy. Upon this the Writer has theſe Reflections: When Princes condeſcend to ſuch Affability, they add to the Value of Dignity itſelf, and drive even Inferiors into a right Way of Thinking. Her Words carry'd the full Energy of a finiſhed Sermon; and her Humility was ſuch a glorious Comment upon her Words, that the Reflection fetch'd Tears into the Eyes of my Relator. Senſible I am, that this Inſtance of Royal Humility is an Emanation of that Piety, which long ſince ſignaliz'd itſelf, in the Preference of Religion, and a good Conſcience, to ſupplicating Empire. Late, for the Good of all Poſterity, may ſhe reap the Fruits of that Piety, which her Words and Actions have, to every conſiderate Heart, ſo ſenſibly recommended!

Paris, Oct. 18. Monſieur Ollvier, Director of the Royal Manufacture of Earthen Ware erected about 100 Years ago at Montpellier, has brought to Fontainbleau, for the King, a Citadel of about three Foot over, and a Service conſiſting of a ſort of Baskets of a new and different Make, and of the common Size for ſerving up Fruit; the whole made up of very fine Earth, in Imitation of the beſt China curiouſly painted.

He has likewiſe brought for the Dauphin and the Duke of Anjou, a Coach and a Berlin, with eight Horſes each, whoſe Harneſs and Reins are made of Blue Silk Twiſt, with little Metal Buckles. There are a Coachman, a Poſtillion, and two Footmen behind each Coach, both which are prettily adorned and all glazed. In the Coach ſits a Princeſs, and before it is a Page, all of very fine Earth, and curiouſly painted; with two Chairs and Chairmen; a Wind-Mill, a Troop of Horſe, with the Guidon, Kettle-Drummer, Trumpet, Hautbois and Baſſoon; a Company of Foot, with their Enſign; one of the King's Grooms dreſſing a manaſed Horſe, and a Courier carrying a Letter to his Majeſty.

There are likewiſe for Meſdames de France, three Chairs with their Chairmen, and little Houſes with all ſorts of Utenſils in Miniature. The 12th in the Afternoon, the King went down, with all his Court, to ſee thoſe Things in the Gallery des Cerfs, and was very well pleaſed with them, and gave Monſieur Olivier Leave to go to Verſailles and have the Honour to preſent them to the Children of France.

London, Octo. 25. In our former Papers we gave an Account of the Deal Caſtle Man of War, Capt. Aubin, having taken off Campechy, a Spaniſh Regiſter Ship from Cadiz, and carried her to Carolina, and thence to Jamaica, by Way of Repriſal for the Woolſball, Capt. Kent, which in her Voyage from Jamaica for London, was taken by a Spaniſh Guarda Coſta, who carred her into Campechy, where ſhe was unjuſtly confiſcated, and when Capt. Aubin arrived there, to demand Reſtitution, the Governor was ſo far from giving him any ſatisfactory Anſwer, that he kept his Lieutenant and Boat's Crew Priſoners. On Wedneſday laſt the John and Mary, Capt. Wood, arrived at Portſmouth from the Havanna, by whom we are inform'd, that the South Sea Company received Advice from La Vera Cruz, that in June laſt a Veſſel arrived there from Campechy, with an Account of the ſaid Affair; on which the Company's Factors had Notice given them to depart from thence in two Months, unleſs the Regiſter Ship was reſtored; but they remonſtrating the Impoſſibility of having an Anſwer from Great Britain about the Repriſal, in that time, they were indulged with four Months. We are alſo informed, that a Memorial relating to this knotty Affair, from the Company was yeſterday delivered to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, it being very much feared, that in caſe this Ship be condemned for the Uſe of the Owners of the Woolſball and her Cargo, that the Spaniards will take the Liberty of repaying themſelves out of the Company's Effects in New-Spain, (which on the Arrival of their Ship Royal Caroline at La Vera Cruz, will be exceeding great). It is great Pity, that the unhappy Sufferers by the Spaniſh Guarda Coſtas in America, cannot obtain Satisfaction for their Loſſes, without expoſing the Company's Effects to the Mercy of the Spaniards. But as we now have an Ambaſſador from his moſt Catholick Majeſty, it is hoped all theſe Complaints will be removed.

London,

London, Sept. 2 A Perſon who hath invented a moſt curious and exact Quadrant, has been on board his Majeſty's Ship the Grafton, lying at the Nore, with Letters from the Lords of the Admiralty, &c. to the Captain thereof, to make Obſervations, which was done before and by many long experienced Sea-Officers, and it's approv'd of greatly. With thisInſtrument may be taken anObſervation at Sea without a Horizon, & much ſooner than by any otherQuadrant: It is but 10 Inches Radius, and anſwers the ſame Purpoſe of a Quadrant of 250 Foot Radius. The Inventor hath concealed its way of Operation in a Braſs Caſe, we ſuppoſe with deſign that no one ſhall invade his Property. He appears to be a Perſon of an intelligent good Nature, and its hoped will meet with ſuitable Encouragement in this Nation.

Extract of a Letter from Cadiz, dated Sept. 16 N. S.

Almoſt all the Letters from Panama, as we are aſſured, are dated in the Month of April; we have however received one of the 3d of June, which adviſes the Arrival there of three Ships, one from Guayaquil with ſome Cocoa, another from Valles, and the third from Caillao with only 20,000 Pieces of Eight regiſtred. The Letters from Lima, ſay, that they believed not more than 400,000 Pieces of Eight were in that City. The Mines of the Province of Tocuman, which are the moſt conſiderable, are no longer worked, on Account of Inſurrections there occaſioned by the new Impoſitions laid on the Inhabitants. 'Tis ſaid alſo, that the Children and Friends of a Counſellor and a Notary, whom the Viceroy had put to Death at Lima, had riſen, driven the Jeſuits out of Paragua, and killed the Lay Brothers of their Convent, on Suſpicion of their being the Occaſion of their Death. In a Word, we hear from all Parts nothing but ſad and Melancholy News thro'out that Country, and the Concern which People are in on this Account is inexpreſſible; and we expect to hear, in a little Time what Meaſures the Court will take towards remedying theſe Misfortunes.

Oct. 6. On Wedneſday laſt the Directors of the Royal Hoſpital at Greenwich met at Salters-Hall, to receive Propoſals from Drapers, to furniſh Linnen Cloth for the Uſe of the ſaid Hoſpital, which requires many Thouſand Yards every Year; and came to an unanimous Reſolution to be ſerved only with Iriſh Linnen, in order to encourage the Manufactures of his Majeſty's Subjects; which laudable example, it is hoped will be followed by many other Perſons and Communities, as being ſo intirely conformable to his Majeſty's known Will and Intention, for promoting the Good of all his Subjects.

It is reported at Vienna, and moſt Parts of the Empire, that when the Sophi of Perſia lately declared War againſt the Grand Signior, he ſwore Deſtruction to the Ottoman Empire; and that in order to accompliſh it, he reſolved to engage the Muſcovites and the Emperor of Germany to attack it at the ſame Time, promiſing that each Party ſhall keep what they can get. They ſay farther, that the Sophi has ſent a Miniſter to Petersbourg upon this Errand, who is from thence to proceed to the Court of Vienna.

London, Oct. 10. On Monday laſt a Boxing Match was fought on the Bowling-Green at Harrow on the Hill, between John Faulconer of Brentford, Carpenter, and Bob Ruſſel, who keeps an Alehouſe at Paddington: There was as great a Concourſe of People as ever was known on ſuch an Occaſion. The Green was Rop'd round; the Foot were firſt, and the Houſe kept behind, without creating the leaſt Diſorder or Diſturbance during the whole Engagement, which laſted above eight Minutes: A great deal of Money was laid, chiefly on the Head of the former, who gave out within the Time aforeſaid.

Newcaſtle (in New-Hampſhire) Feb. 16. Five Men going out a fiſhing in a Schooner from this Place on Monday Night, unhappily run upon a Rock called the Whales Back, which obliged them to beat over Wood-Iſland Bar, where they loſt their Rudder, and ſo damaged the Veſſel, that ſhe ſunk ſoon after ſhe got into the River. Having no Boat, the unhappy Perſons on board were left ſtruggling for Life in the Water: By this Time it was about Sun riſe on Tueſday Morning, and ſome People here ſeeing her ſink, made what haſte they could to the Aſſiſtance of the diſtreſſed; one of them ſwam on Shore with his Boots on the other Four were taken up alive; but two of them, viz. Robert Sutton a Fiſherman, and John Hieden a Barber, died before they could get on Shore; the Three tho' much chilled with the Cold, are likely to do well. The Veſſel is ſince found by Grapling, and 'tis thought may be weighed, but whether ſhe will be fit for Service or not cannot be yet determined.

New-York, April 2. By ſome Letters from London of the 11th of January, we are told, that a Convoy of Men of War, with ſome of the King's Yatchts were bound for Holland, to bring over the Prince Royal of Pruſſia, and the Prince of Naſſau Frieſland, to be married to the Princeſs Royal, and the Princeſs Amelia.
